Part of Nationwide Program Following the 9-11 Emergency

Huron Twp. Senior Citizens Volunteer Program Introduced

BY MARGARET E. O'KELLEY

On March 10th Township board meeting, Police Chief Metzger and Police Reserve Officer Jim DuFour introduced the new program that called for senior citizens to get involved in various volunteer tasks with the police department.

Chief Metzger said he "tasked" Officer Dufour several months ago to look into the program. He did so and Officer Dufour spoke to the Board about his efforts to date. He advised the program arose out of the 9-11 emergency. He went on to describe the seniors as "the nation's greatest asset." He added the chief and he recently met with the seniors at the Krzyske Center and described them as "quite receptive."

He said he understood that some seniors did not have the time or the resources to contribute to the community but he said some do and the program provides a resource for them.

Supervisor Mitchell referred to the list of tasks in the brochure and pointed to the "answering of phones." He asked how that would work? Dufour responded in general and said the list were recommendations made up by the people that worked with the federal government. He said some would apply and some wouldn't and he described them as "thought starters."

The chief was quick to respond and tried to explain the tasks. He described their use during a "catastrophic event." He said the event would cause a lot of phone calls into the department and the seniors could assist in those calls. He referred to a crime prevention packet that his department is working on and the seniors could deliver the packet to new residents or perhaps residents that have been a victim of a crime.

He continued by saying they could check on homes while the residents were on vacation and mentioned the ordinance issue, which he described as "big in our Township." He said the seniors would not enforce the ordinances but would be asked to drive by and then report to the ordinance officer.

He emphasized it would be seniors themselves that would put the program together and they would decide what programs to implement.

Treasurer Skrzycki praised the program stating he was introduced to the program while at a national conference in Washington D.C. He told the chief he should include the fire chief in the program and he described the program as a good thing and to keep up the good work.

Supervisor Mitchell was quick to respond that it may be a good thing for some communities but he wasn't aware that crime was to the point that we needed senior citizens to check on things.

He said it was adding another level of someone checking for a problem that he wasn't aware of as a problem. He went to say he didn't like the idea of citizens checking out houses with the possibility of getting hurt. He described himself as a senior and he said he wasn't going to check on somebody's home without something to defend himself with. He cautioned that sending seniors out on these types of tasks was not a wise thing to do.

Treasurer Skrzycki must have thought the supervisor missed the point because he said the program was not about that. He said it was about homeland security. He added it was about terrorism and having some type of infrastructure in place beyond the "first responders." He saw the program as an extension of the police and fire departments and said we are not sending out seniors to do police work.

Apparently it was Skrzycki that missed the point. The brochure clearly lists the following services to be rendered. There are answering phones, vacation house checks, neighborhood watch, crime prevention, recruiting volunteers, take police reports, and distribute information at the police booth during Applefest and the St. Stephens festival. (In Huron Township this isn't normally considered a response to terrorist activity).

Again the police chief was quick to respond and explain the activities they were interested in. However, it seemed his explanation was touching some raw nerves on the Board because they continued to question some of the list activities. He continued to describe activities that had very little to do with emergencies but more with day-to-day simple tasks with good public relations in mind.

He said they were looking for volunteers and described the seniors as "another pair of eyes and ears." He added the seniors would be screened and trained because they didn't want vigilantes doing the work. He gave an example of a person driving by a home where the police knew the family was on vacation. If they saw "a light on" in the house they would not approach the house but would call it in.

Mitchell persisted and asked the chief if crime was on the increase? He responded he wasn't sure — perhaps some types were up and some types were down. He emphasized that was not the issue.

Trustee Krause commented that she thought it was a good program and was glad the issue was brought up. She added that sometimes the seniors are set aside and forgotten. This program gives them some self-esteem. She said they are still wanted and still provide something for their community.

Trustee Carey said she is a member of the senior community and too often you are pushing aside people who have time to volunteer. She added that some are waiting to be asked to come and help.

Trustee Adkins asked about the taking of police reports. The chief quickly responded that it was part of the "national suggestions." To this Adkins responded the brochure mentioned the Applefest; suggesting the brochure may have more of a local slant that was being stated.

Adkins went on to say even the application mentioned the taking of police reports and she felt this was the role of the police officers. The chief responded and said he was thinking more along the lines of an insurance driven request to make a police report.

At the end of the presentation the police chief stated the "three projects he was interested in were ordinance, neighborhood watch, and distribution of the "crime prevention packet" he had described earlier. He again repeated it would be up to the seniors to decide what projects they will get involved in.

The board took no formal action and the Township will continue developing the program.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Weekly will always support volunteer organizations that want to improve the Township. We don't think it is wise to involve seniors in checking out houses for ordinance violations. We don't want see a potentially good program get dragged down with neighbors spying on neighbors or activities that place them in harm's way.

Reflections from the River - Our View

BY LARRY L. O'KELLEY

From time to time, you hear me talk about Huron Township and the people that have lived in it. You know I talk about people and say, "they are Huron Township." Generally, I am speaking of people that are basic straight-talking people that understand and appreciate the land. I'm talking about humble yet proud people with an independent spirit. These are the people that made Huron Township the fine community it is. There are people today that fit my definition and I embrace them.

Larry Kittle was such a person.. He came from the long-standing Kittle family that came to the area back around 1837 even before the area became a state. They settled on a 260-acre farm in the Merriman Rd.-West Rd. area. Generations later, Larry was born and raised in Huron Township and lived almost all his life in Huron Township.

He married his fine wife Edna and settled on West Road just across the street from the old Kittle School on West Rd. They had five children and four of them survive today ensuring that his Kittle line will continue on.

Larry was always involved in something and he often spoke fondly of his days as a Boy Scout leader and Commander of the local American Legion Post. He was particularly proud of the military history of the Kittle family and in our Historical Day newspaper we presented his military family to the citizens of Huron Township.

You could say I met Larry later in life. We always knew him because his wife Edna worked for Margaret when she was the director of transportation for the Huron School District. But I never really got to know him until I became involved in the Historical Society. I took an immediate liking to him which is not surprising because there aren't too many people that could resist him. He was that type of man.

I consider myself fortunate to have known and worked with him on the historical society and especially the Historical Days that we started over five years ago. He was always the first to arrive and the last to leave. There was never a time when I would ask a favor that he wouldn't comply. His devotion to Historical Days moved me on more than one occasion.

He attended every function we had and he usually sat back and let others run the show. He was content to help in any way he could but he shunned the limelight. While it may have appeared he was too humble he actually had strength about him. He would never start a conversation but he sure would express his opinion and it always made sense.

It was my impression he was a no-nonsense guy that had a gleam and sparkle in his eye and a weakness for his family. I'm sure there are plenty of stories about Larry's brand of nonsense and the playful nature of it. It is possible to be a no-nonsense guy and be involved in nonsense.

You've just got to be smart enough to know the difference and Larry did.

I often wondered if other people saw Larry the way I saw him. At his funeral many fine stories filled the church and it became clear to me that he touched a lot of people and those people shared the same good feelings about the man.

I was fortunate to be part of an interview we had with Larry and Edna for the 2003 Historical calendar. We videotaped the interview and I was lucky to have been the interviewer. The calendar was one of our best sellers and we sold out except for a few copies that we kept for the archives. It was a delightful moment and we now have a record we can continue to enjoy for many years hence.

The Kittle Family buried Larry the other day at Michigan Memorial.. He had died quietly in his sleep. I would like to consider that maybe Heaven was in need of a handy man that liked to play golf on his days off.

We will miss this man. For those who are new to the community—you may not understand how much this community will miss him. What you need to know is it is people like Larry that attracted you to Huron Township. We often worry that his kind are passing from the scene. With his passing, I am more firmly resolved to protect the things he loved about Huron Township.

We grieve with his family at his passing as he was Huron Township.

Why Early Learning?

Years ago, preschool was unheard of in regard to formal learning. Preschool entailed a half an hour of stories, songs and finger plays. Now, there are waiting lists for children wanting to enroll into an early education program with ambitions of their child being one step ahead upon entrance to kindergarten.

The government is even looking more closely at early intervention programs making sure that "not one child is left behind." It is believed, in this day and age, if your child does not participate in a structured learning environment before kindergarten, they will probably experience a lot of frustration and failure.

Unfortunately, most preschool programs are tuition-based and function solely on monies brought in from the parents. We are at a low point right now, too, with record unemployment rates and people not able to provide the "luxury" of preschool for their children. We all need to reprioritize our lives in order to survive!

As time moves on, and we have significant bodies in government, hopefully there will be more funding available for preschool with the possibility of it even being the first level of education versus kindergarten. This may be what we see before long.

I have seen first hand, the difference between children that have been exposed to some sort of preschool opportunity and those that have not. I commend those "stay-at-home" parents that dedicate their time to their children and offer them crafts, play dates and story hour. Those years go so quickly! Preschool, however, allows a numerous amount of learning that can't be taught at home. Socializing with other peers allows for problem-solving, initiating self-help skills, sharing ideas and building self-confidence. Learning through play promotes self-creativity, new interests and a diverse array of academics. A sound program will offer age-appropriate activities that continuously meet the demands of a growing 3, 4, or 5-year-old. The more you offer a child the more they can take with them.

If you are unable to participate in a preschool program, look into home schooling activities, the public libraries, or outreach programs through the YWCA/YMCA or your local churches. It is truly important to give your child a head start to learning in some way. Studies confirm that the first five years of learning are the most important! It is our responsibility as parents and educators to quench children's thirst for learning.

Huron Soccer Season About to Begin with April 24th Kick-Off

With the spring season upon us, we look forward to warmer temperatures and playing soccer. There have been lots of positive changes within our soccer club that we'd like to share with you.

This has proved to be our most successful year in regard to registrations having enrolled 560 players between the 2 seasons. With this growth we have found new locations enabling us to provide our teams with beautifully kept fields, ample paved parking and enclosed, heated restroom facilities thanks to our Willow Metropark. There has been a bit of concern over the entry permit, however, when you understand the advantages our association gains, it puts things in perspective.

A vast majority of Huron Township residents purchase permits yearly anyhow, $20.00 dollars is minimal compared to selling $100.00 or more worth of pretzels. The Metroparks maintain the fields, (we do the striping), they grant us full use of the fields during peak season, they provide us with full service restrooms versus a porta-pot without running water as well as plenty of safe, paved parking. This not only saves the H.S.A., money, but it eases a many headaches as well.

Thanks to the cooperation of the Huron School District, we are looking forward to developing more fields at the Huron River Drive site. This will be where our travel teams will be playing games and practicing for now. Brown Elementary will (hopefully) be our new U10 travel team site. This is our best season for competitive travel having 7 teams ready to play in the Great Lakes Soccer League!

The high school coaches, both girls and boys, have been involved and very supportive of our efforts. They are dedicated to the children in our community and are willing to put forth their time to build a positive program for our school district. We have coaches clinics set for March 16th, 23rd and 30th at Miller Elementary from 6:00-1:30 and will be getting insight from Coach Benewiecz, Chief Ref Barry Detherage and from our newest member, Ron Meyer out of Minnesota. There will be a variety of drills and information available for all interested.

Events scheduled for the future include our 2nd Annual 4-Man-Scramble Golf Outing that was a huge success last year. This will be held at the same place, Sandy Creek Golf Course of Monroe on Saturday, June 26th. PROEXCEL will return this August for a one-week soccer camp conducted by semi-professional players from Europe. This will be held within Willow Metropark. And, lastly, our spring season will end with our soccer picnic where food, fun and awards will be the theme. Look for something new at this one!

The game season will begin the first week in May and should end by the time the children are out of school. Travel teams, however, start a couple of weeks earlier. April 24th and 25th is kick-off weekend for them. They usually play until the 3rd week of June.

Our thanks to Huron Township, Huron Clinton Metroparks, The Huron School District, and The Huron River Weekly, for your continued support. There are many other people who have been instrumental in making Huron

Soccer what it is. We're glad to continue offering soccer in this community and hope to do so for years to come.

WAYS TO GET ORGANIZED (CHAUFFEUR)

- End key confusion with decorative keys.
- Removable key rings let you leave work keys at home on the weekends, the car key with the valet and the house key with the sitter.
- Slide a local phone under the front seat.
- Stock the glove compartment with takeout menus, napkins, nail file, car registration, tire gauge, first aid kit and a roll of quarters (for the car wash).
- Keep a charity box in your trunk, not your closet. When it's full, drop it off.
- Create a "just in case" box for the trunk: umbrella, cheap rain coat, scissors, big black marker, tape, paper towels, plastic bags, extra kids/adult socks and a one size fits all t-shirt, sweatshirt, sweat pants. You never know when you might need them!

Your Cosmic Look For The Week Of March 25th - April 1st

For entertainment only

Aries Mar 21 - April 20

One in green awaits your arrival to a prescheduled date. You may hear unexpected news by over-hearing. 1589

Taurus April 21 - May 21

One who gives sound advice, may not be truthful. Listen to hear small clues to truth. 5216

Gemini May 22 - June 21

The apple of many eyes you are. Is there enough to go around, or do you spread yourself thin? 8917

Cancer June 22 - July 23

Get the ball rollin, one of the most important is due to happen. Stay focused on main goal. 5418

Leo July 24 - Aug 23

Don't miss your chance to see what's at the end of the rainbow. One who is unfamiliar approaches. 1902

Virgo Aug 24 - Sept 23

You finally find the answer you've been looking for. Don't 2nd guess yourself go with your instinct. 2000

Libra Sept 24 - Oct 23

Be careful what you say, the things you say this week come out wrong and strong.

Scorpio Oct 24 - Nov 22

Keep personal feeling out of situation at work. 5569

Sagittarius Nov 23 - Dec 21

Wear green and get more than noticed at social function. Let loose and talk louder. 4444

Capricorn Dec 22 - Jan 20

After the ordeal ends, you feel lucky to have lived to fight another day. 2011

Horoscopes

William Grover

Aquarius Jan 21 - Feb 19

Feel good about all you do. Perfect a talent that you never had time for. 2231

Pisces Feb 20 - Mar 20

Do you feel luck? Well, do ya? You have a Hollywood movie star status. Use it while you got it. 1403

Huron Countryside Co-op Nursery to Hold Open House March 30th

Huron Countryside Co-op Nursery (HCCN) will be holding an Open House on March 30, 2004 from 12:00 Noon - 2 pm and again from 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm. HCCN is a preschool for children 2½ years - 5 years of age. In a cooperative preschool, parents, grandparents, and caregivers get the chance to be directly involved in the child's early education.

Within each class the child has a chance to do arts & crafts, music, games, exercise, stories, and monthly field trips. The three-year-old classes focus on learning while playing and developing social skills. In preparation for Kindergarten the four-year-old class focuses on writing and recognition of letters and numbers; which is the building blocks for a successful kindergarten and grade school experience.

Children (of all ages) have lots of hands-on fun at Huron Countryside Co-op Nursery

Our program director Mrs. Terry Perry has been educating preschoolers for over 13 years. The nursery is operated cooperatively by parents and Mrs. Perry. Please join us at our Open House for crafts, snacks, and fun and see how our program can be a great start for your child's education. HCCN is located at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 19109 Craig Street, New Boston. Call for more information regarding the program at (734) 654-1356. HCCN is a non-profit, non-discriminatory organization.

Children Take on Proverbs

A first grade teacher collected the following proverbs over the years.

She gave her classes part of an old proverb and let them fill in the rest.

As You Shall Make Your Bed So Shall You..... Mess It Up.

Strike While The..... Bug Is Close.

It's Always Darkest Before..... Daylight Savings Time.

Never Under Estimate The Power Of..... Termites.

You Can Lead A Horse To Water But..... How?

Don't Bite The Hand That... ..Looks Dirty.

No News Is..... Impossible.

A Miss Is As Good As A..... Mr.

You Can't Teach An Old Dog New..... Math.

If You Lie Down With The Dogs, You'll.....Stink In The Morning.

Love All, Trust..... Me

The Pen Is Mightier Than The..... Pigs.

An Idle Mind Is..... The Best Way To Relax.

Where There's Smoke, There's..... Pollution.

Happy The Bride Who..... Gets All The Presents!

A Penny Saved Is..... Not Much.

Two's Company, Three's.....

... The Musketeers.

Laugh And The Whole World Laughs With You, Cry And.....You Have To Blow Your Nose.

Children Should Be Seen And Not..... Spanked Or Grounded.

If At First You Don't Succeed..... Get New Batteries.

When The Blind Leadeth The Blind... ..Get Out Of The Way.
